EDUCATE AND INSPIRE

As the official language services provider for the Rio Olympic Games, EF uses cutting edge technology to create a fundamentally better way of learning English. Our online English program serves adult learners from over 120 countries, and we are looking for engaging professionals to make our virtual classrooms come alive.

About EF

EF (www.ef.com) is the world leader in education. Our mission is to open the world through education and so far we have helped over 15 million people learn a language, discover the world or earn an academic degree. We have subsidiaries and non-profit organizations, schools and offices in over 50 countries, and we employ over 40,000 staff and teachers. In today's increasingly complex and interdependent world, our mission is more relevant than ever. EF is also the official language services provider for the PyeongChang 2018 Winter Olympics.

The Job

Teachers work from home teaching conversation-based group and private lessons, as well as writing correction services and proficiency assessments. The average class has 5-6 students for 45 minute sessions, or 1-on-1 sessions for 20 or 40 minutes. Teachers use EF-developed materials and provide after class reports to aid with student progress. Both regular and bilingual sessions are offered 24 hours a day. Teachers set their availability online and are assigned classes accordingly. This is a perfect opportunity for someone looking to benefit from a work from home opportunity with a stable, well-established company.

Compensation

Bilingual rate is $14 per hour; English only rate is $12 with performance and tenure-based bonuses of up to 30% of base rate. This is an independent contractor position.

Requirements

- Ability to work independently and learn company policies through a self-paced online orientation
- Bilingual Arabic/English speaker with either an Associate's or Bachelor's in any field, and a minimum 40-hour TEFL course
- Past experience in teaching, coaching or mentoring a plus, but not required for application
- Stable wired connection on newer generation desktop/laptop with a webcam and headset
- Afternoon availability to meet student demand

The profile of our teachers

- Tech-savvy and comfortable using online learning platforms
- Adaptable and enjoys working independently
- Engaging and positive online presence
- Shows good language awareness
- Excellent cultural awareness, communication and self motivational skills, as well as a commitment to delivering a high level of customer services and support
